HEADLINE: RELIANCE BOOSTS TELEMUNDO WITH EQUITY; CASH NEEDED FOR OPERATING EXPENSES

BODY:

The principal owners of Telemundo Group recently increased their equity ownership in the company, allowing Telemundo to boost its capital structure and pay down some of its $ 264.8 million in high-yield debt, according to Peter Housman, chief financial officer.

An analyst said Telemundo needs this latest infusion of working capital by Reliance to support the company as it struggles in the fiercely competitive market of Spanish language television, the analyst said.

"The company's cash flow does not cover its carrying costs and that's why they need an equity infusion," said Craig Fitt, a media and entertainment analyst at Moody's Investors Service.

Telemundo, which owns Spanish language television stations in 37 markets in the U.S. and Puerto Rico, was created from Reliance Capital Group's 1986 leveraged buyout of John Blair & Co. Reliance sold off several John Blair's assets after the LBO, keeping at least one Spanish television station.

That station and others either acquired by Reliance or converted from stations previously owned by John Blair became the basis of Telemundo. In the summer of 1987, Telemundo launched an initial public offering via Drexel Burnham Lambert and Bears, Stearns & Co. At the same time, Telemundo launched two senior issues of zero coupon notes that have a total face value of $ 220 million. Telemundo also has a $ 61 million issue of 13 5/8% senior subordinated notes, which were assumed as part of the John Blair acquisition, Housman said.

Reliance Capital, Telemundo's largest shareholders, agreed to buy two million shares of new stock for $ 12.5 million and Reliance Insurance Co. agreed to buy 4 million shares for $ 25 million. The transaction boosts Reliance Capital's stake in the company to 43% and Reliance Insurance to 35%.

This financing arrangement "definitely makes sense," said Paul Szczygiel, equity analyst at Bear, Stearns. "It's also the added comfort of having Reliance still interested in making a better investment in the company."

According to Szczygiel, Telemundo's U.S. growth of about 30% per year is in line with expectations. For the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, the analyst expects the company will post its first positive cash flow. Bear, Stearns estimates Telemundo will have operating income of $ 4.5 million on revenue of $ 133 million in 1990, compared to an operating loss of $ 5.4 million on revenue of $ 116 million in 1989.

A high-yield analyst said, however, that Telemundo has had "a lot tougher row to hoe than initially expected."

Reliance believes Telemundo has a future because only about one percent of all advertising is directed to a community that comprises eight percent of the nation, the analyst said. "There's tremendous upside potential," he said.

HEADLINE: D&P HIGH YIELD RESEARCH COVERAGE EXPANDS TO INCLUDE THE TELEMUNDO GROUP

DATELINE: CHICAGO, Jan. 24

BODY:

Duff & Phelps Inc. has added the Telemundo Group, a Spanish language broadcaster, to their High Yield Research coverage, the national rating agency headquartered here said today.

"Major considerations in our credit analysis of Telemundo include their highly leveraged capital structure supported by fast-growing but relatively small cash flows (estimated $15 million in 1990)," said Ned P. Zachar, media analyst in the High Yield Research Group. "Also, Telemundo must refinance over $100MM in zero coupon maturities in 1992 and 1993, and given the reluctance in the banking community to lend to highly leveraged entities, the refinancing will be a difficult task."

Reliance Group Holdings has invested approximately $200MM and now controls over 78 percent of the equity of Telemundo. Through nine months in 1990, Reliance invested $38MM with the funds being used to buy back zero coupon debt.

"We are projecting earnings before depreciation and income taxes (EBDIT)/total interest coverage of 0.4 times and 0.6 times in 1990 and 1991, respectively," Zachar said. "EBDIT/cash interest coverages are much higher at 2.1 times and 3.2 times for 1990 and 1991, respectively."

The fundamentals for this niche broadcasting segment are strong, but Zachar questions the strength of Telemundo's prospects relative to its capital structure. Additional equity infusions from Reliance or from bondholders (via a swap) will likely be necessary to remain viable. CONTACT: Ned P. Zachar of Duff & Phelps, 312-630-4661

HEADLINE: Univision Misses Payment

BODY:

Univision Holdings Inc., the New York-based company that operates the country's largest Spanish-language television network and owns nine television stations, said last night that it had failed to make interest payments due yesterday of about $3 million to its bank lenders and about $7 million to holders of subordinated debentures. The company said it had "insufficient cash flow."

Univision, which is owned by a group that includes Hallmark Cards Inc. and a unit of the First Chicago Corporation, said it was working on a financial restructuring.

Univision has about $315 million in bank debt, owed to a group led by Continental Illinois Bank. The company also has $135 million in senior subordinated zero-coupon debt and $105 million in 13 3/8 percent subordinated debentures outstanding. The bonds were used for a 1988 bridge loan from Hallmark used for the Univision acquisition by the Hallmark group.

Mary T. Conway, a spokeswoman for Univision, said: "The basic business is not in trouble, but it cannot satisfy the cash requirement of the present financial structure. The current business environment is much more competitive than when this financial structure was created."

The failure to make the payments raises questions about the future profitability of Spanish-language television at a time when the emphasis has been on growth potential.

Univision and its rival Spanish network, Telemundo, which is owned by the Reliance Group, plan to spend a total of up to $40 million in the next five years to create the first Spanish-language television rating service to provide advertisers with more information about Hispanic viewers.
